<sup>8</sup> Haggai 2:5; Psalm 139:7-12; Ezekiel 11:5. The American College Dictionary defines omnipresent as being "present everywhere at the same time."

<sup>9</sup> Psalm 139:1-6, 13-16; Isaiah 40:13-14. The American College Dictionary defines omniscient as "knowing all things or having infinite knowledge."

- <sup>10</sup> 1 John 5:6. The Holy Spirit not only testifies through people but testifies to the individual spirit. It is impossible for someone to come to faith in Jesus apart from the Holy Spirit. A person may hear the most convicting of sermons and, yet, not be convicted. Only the Holy Spirit can convict and draw people to Jesus.
- <sup>11</sup> Genesis 6:3. The Holy Spirit strives with the spirit of man to convince them of the Gospel of Jesus. The death and resurrection of Jesus assures us that the Holy Spirit will continue to strive with men and women to convince them to believe.

- <sup>30</sup> 2 Timothy 1:14. Some may say this treasure is the Gospel. I believe this treasure is faith in Jesus. We must guard that faith. The Gospel has been under attack for 2000 years and has withstood every attack. Satan's goal is not to destroy the Gospel. He knows this is impossible. His goal is to destroy faith in the Gospel one soul at a time. Satan is coming for the treasure of faith that has been entrusted to you. By the strength of the Holy Spirit, guard it.
